

Exhibit B

Judge: Dale A. Kimball
Magistrate David Nuffer

Defendant is directed to give answers to the written interrogatories separately, fully, in writing, under oath, and in accordance with the following definitions and instructions. Defendant is requested to produce the documents and things in its possession, custody or control pursuant to the document requests.

Answers to the interrogatories and all documents and things responsive to the document requests must be served on the undersigned attorneys for The SCO Group at the offices of Boies, Schiller & Flexner LLP, 100 Southeast Second Street, Suite 2800, Miami, Florida 33131 within 30 days of service of these interrogatories and document requests.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

For purposes of these interrogatories and requests for production of documents, the following definitions and instructions apply.

A. Definitions.

1. The term "AIX" shall mean the UNIX-based operating system distributed and/or developed by IBM, including all prior versions, releases and maintenance modifications.
2. The term "concerning" shall mean relating to, referring to, reflecting, describing, evidencing, referencing, discussing or constituting.
3. The term "describe" shall mean in the case of an event or circumstance, to set forth in detail the date, time, place, individuals or entities involved and context and content of the event or circumstance.
4. The term "document" shall be deemed to include every record of every type including, without limitation, information stored on any electromagnetic storage device, or computer, any written, printed, typed, recorded, stored, or graphic matter, however produced, reproduced, or existing in the possession, custody, or control of Defendant, or any agent, employee, or attorney of the Defendant, and all drafts, notes, or preparatory material concerned with said document, and every additional copy of such record or document where such copy contains any commentary, notation, or other change whatsoever that does not appear on the original or other copy of the document produced. "Document" shall be deemed also to include any summary of a document or documents called for hereafter.

5. The term "Dyrix" shall mean the UNIX-based operating system distributed and/or developed by Sequent Computer Systems, Inc. and/or IBM, including all prior versions, releases, derivative works, methods, and modifications.
6. The terms "IBM," "Defendant" "you," "your," and any synonym thereof and derivatives therefrom are intended to and shall embrace IBM and include its parents, subsidiaries, divisions, or affiliates and any corporate predecessor or successor of any of them, including Sequent Computer Systems, Inc., and, in addition all of the Defendant's attorneys and accountants, and all of its respective agents, servants, associates, employees, representatives, investigators, officers, directors and others who are or have been in possession of or may have obtained information for or on behalf of such Defendant in any manner with respect to any matter referred to in the pleadings in the above-styled case.
7. The term "identify" shall mean:
 - a. in the case of a natural person, to state the full name, current or last known job title and position, current or last known address, current or last known home and work telephone numbers, and current or last known electronic mail address, and to indicate the basis of that person's knowledge, including but not limited to the identification of documents and communications and a description of his/her personal involvement in any transaction, meeting, software development, marketing, or other activity relating in any way to the allegations of the Complaint and any defenses;

- b. in the case of any entity other than a natural person, to state its name, address, principal place of business and, if applicable, place of incorporation and a contact person at the entity;
- c. in the case of a document, to state the author(s), title, subject matter, date, place, source of publication of the document and substance of the document;
- d. in the case of an oral communication, to give a complete description of such oral communication, including but not limited to: (i) the speaker(s) and actual or intended recipient(s) or witnesses of the communication; (ii) the date of the communication; and (iii) the substance of the communication;
- e. in the case of alleged trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information, whether computer code, methods or otherwise, to give a complete and detailed description of such trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information, including but not limited to an identification of the specific lines and portions of code claimed as trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information, and the location (by module name, file name, sequence number or otherwise) of those lines of code within any larger software product or property.

f. in the case of an alleged right, to give a completed and detailed description of such right, including but not limited to: (i) the issuer of the right; (ii) the date the right became effective; (iii) the date the right expired; and (iv) any limitations placed upon such right.

8. The term "open source" shall mean any software code that is made available in source code form without any confidentiality restrictions, including but not limited to any code made available under the General Public License, the BSD license, or the MIT license.
9. The term "person" shall be deemed to include natural persons, partnerships, firms, and corporations, and all of their subsidiaries or divisions, and, in the case of partnerships, firms, and corporations, the individual member(s) or agent(s) thereof.
10. The term "source code" shall mean the human-readable form of a computer program written in the original and preferred form for human inspection and modification, and includes but is not limited to source code listings; compiler and/or assembler output listings for such source code; source code listings for macros or "includes" (both executable and mapping) listings used in such source code; job control language files; and/or other files required to create an executable version of a program, including but not limited to user interface components; panels; screen definitions and help text; and e-lists.

B. Instructions.

1. Unless otherwise indicated, all requests and interrogatories are from January 1, 1999 to present.
2. Information requested in these interrogatories shall include information within the knowledge or possession of any of Defendant's agents, employees, attorneys, investigators or any other persons, firms or entities directly or indirectly subject to Defendant's control in any way whatsoever.
3. Each interrogatory shall be answered in its entirety. If any interrogatory or subsection thereof cannot be answered in full, it shall be answered to the fullest extent possible with an explanation as to why a complete answer is not provided.
4. If there is a claim of privilege as to any communication concerning information requested by these interrogatories, specify the privilege claimed, the communication and/or answer to which that claim is made, the topic discussed in the communication and/or answer to which that claim is made, the topic discussed in the communication and the basis upon which the claim is asserted.
5. These interrogatories are continuing in nature and require supplemental or additional responses in accordance with Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
6. All documents produced in response to these requests shall be produced in the same order as they are kept or maintained in the ordinary course of business and, where multiple pages or documents are assembled, collated, grouped, or otherwise attached, shall not be separated or disassembled.

7. With respect to any document responsive to this request that is withheld from production based upon a claim of privilege, please provide the information required pursuant to Rule 26(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
8. If, for reasons other than a claim of privilege, you refuse to produce any document requested herein, state the grounds upon which the refusal is based with sufficient specificity to permit a determination of the propriety of such refusal.
9. If there are no documents responsive to any paragraph or subparagraph set forth in the requests, please provide a written response so stating.

These requests are continuing and, pursuant to Rule 26(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, require further and supplemental production by Defendant whenever Defendant acquires, makes, or locates additional documents between the time of the initial production hereunder and the time of the trial in this action.
